PRESS RELEASE

NEW DATE IS ANNOUNCED FOR MISS TEXAS USA®

The MISS TEXAS USA® competition, which was cancelled due to Hurricane Harvey, has been rescheduled for January 5 & 6, 2018.

The prestigious pageant, an official preliminary to MISS USA® and MISS UNIVERSE®, will take place at the beautiful Hilton Houston Post Oak Hotel.

The Preliminary Show and Competition will be held on the evening of Friday, January 5, during which the Swimsuit and Photogenic award winners will be announced. Miss Congeniality and the winner of the People's Choice Award, which benefits the Texas Wounded Warrior Foundation, will be announced during the Final Show on the evening of Saturday, January 6.

Hosting the show will be Miss Texas USA 1998 and Austin TV personality, Holly Mills-Gardner, and former NFL player Emmanuel Acho, of ESPN and the Longhorn Network. Nancy Gonzalez, Miss Texas USA 2017, will crown her successor.

The lucky Miss Texas USA winner will have an exciting year of travel and personal appearances and will receive a prize package of cash, gold and diamond jewelry, a fabulous vacation, wardrobe, and much more. She will also represent Texas in the nationally televised, MISS USA® competition in the Spring of 2018. MISS USA then proceeds on to the ultimate of pageants, MISS UNIVERSE®.

Tickets will go on sale in December for the Preliminary Competition on Saturday, January 5, and the Final Show on Saturday, January 6. Tickets will be available on our website www.MissTexasUSA.com.
